

APPLICATION FOR VIDEO-RECORDING A MARRIAGE SERVICE

Wedding of

at(church) on

I hereby apply for permission for recording equipment to be brought into and used inside the church for the purpose of recording the above service, subject to the following conditions:

1. The dignity of the occasion must be preserved. There is to be only one video camera, and it is to be kept in one stationary position during the ceremony itself. No special lighting may be used.
2. No video-recorded part of the service and no video material featuring the staff of the church may be broadcast without the written permission of the Incumbent. Such material may not be used commercially, other than for the purpose of producing copies for the couple's family and friends.
3. This contract does not supersede any copyright regulations. Neither the Incumbent nor the Parochial Church Council has any authority to give copyright permission for the lawful reproduction or recording of any work – literary or musical – which is protected by copyright, nor to give consent on behalf of any performer or person having an exclusive recording right. The responsibility for applying for and obtaining such copyright permission (where necessary) rests with the applicant. Specifically, permissions to record granted as a result of this application do not extend to any part of the service other than the text of the authorised service. Hymns, anthems, additional prayers etc are not necessarily covered and it is your responsibility to obtain additional permission for any such other copyright material. Copyright subsists in a work at least until the end of the period of fifty years from the end of the calendar year in which the originator (author, composer, etc) died. Where there is doubt whether material is copyright the publisher will usually be able to assist. For music & lyrics, detailed advice on copyright is available from "The Mechanical Copyright Protection Society Ltd, 41 Streatham High Road, London SW16 1ER (0181 769 4400)".
4. The church charges a fee for the recording of a wedding service. This covers the Incumbent's permission to bring and use recording equipment inside the church, and also the organist's performing-rights fee.

DECLARATION BY THE RECORDIST

I have read the whole of this notice. I accept that if this application is granted the Incumbent has given me permission to introduce and use video recording equipment inside the church subject to the conditions specified above. In particular I acknowledge that the Incumbent has not given copyright permission or authorised the recording of any material or performance which may be protected by law.
